

IND, 49. IND, 8.

85
18p
14d

INDIANA
State

Marion(49)
County

INDIANAPOLIS
Town or Vicinity

Riley, James Whitcomb, House (IND-51)

Structure (Nickum, John R. House)

528 Lockerbie St. Historic House museum. Brick, irregular L-shape, 42' (three-bay front) x 68', 2-1/2 stories hipped roof with flat deck, projecting entrance bay, bracketed wooden cornice with attic windows in frieze, arched door and window openings with limestone trim, one story balustraded front porch, Italianate style, original lighting and plumbing fixtures still in place, furnishings, woodwork, and interior wall finishes also preserved. (OVER)

INKED MYLARS; MYLAR REPROD
PRINTS

Form 10-444 (2/62)

HISTORIC AMERICAN BUILDINGS SURVEY

Built c. 1872 for John R. Nickum. Poet James Whitcomb Riley lived there as a paying guest from 1893 until his death in 1916. 8 sheets (1970, including site plan, plans, elevations, section, details); 5 ext. photos (1970), 7 int. photos (1970), 2 ext. photocopies (one showing neighborhood) (c. 1901), 2 int. photocopies (c. 1900); 13 data pages (1970-1971); HABSI form (1958). NR

Card prepared August 1973
